

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. BABY RAY AND HIS PETS

(To be read to children)

One little dog he had to keep, keep, keep;
Two cunning little kitty-cats,
creep, creep, creep;
Three white rabbits with a leap, leap, leap;
Four yellow ducks from the duck pond deep, deep, deep;
Five pretty little chicks crying peep, peep, peep;
All saw that Baby Ray was asleep, sleep, sleep.

—EUDORA BUMSTEAD.

THE WAKE-UP STORY

Cock-a-doodle-doo !

Cock-a-doodle-doo !

Wake up, pretty chicks.

Wake up, yellow ducks.

Wake up, cunning kitty-cats.

Wake up, little dog.

Wake up, white rabbits.

Sleep, Baby Ray.

I will not wake you.

Cock-a-doodle-doo !

Cock-a-doodle-doo !

Little dog Penny is awake.
The two cunning kitty-cats are awake.
The three white rabbits are awake.
The four yellow ducks are awake.
The five pretty chicks are awake.
Baby Ray is asleep.

The little dog will have breakfast.
The kitty-cats will have breakfast.
The rabbits will have breakfast.
The ducks will have breakfast.
The chicks will have breakfast.
Baby Ray must have breakfast, too.
He must have a good breakfast.

Soon Baby Ray waked up.
Mother said,
“Baby Ray must have breakfast.
He must have a good breakfast.
I will get his breakfast.
Baby Ray likes milk.
I will get milk.
Baby Ray likes eggs.
I will get an egg.
Baby Ray likes apples.
I will get an apple.”

Mother went to the cow.

The cow gave her milk.

The milk was for Baby Ray.

Mother said,

“Thank you, good cow.

Thank you for the milk.

Baby Ray will thank you, too.

Thank you, good cow, thank you.”

Mother went to the hen.

The hen gave her an egg.

The egg was for Baby Ray.

Mother said,

“Thank you, good hen.

Thank you for the egg.

Baby Ray will thank you, too.

Thank you, good hen, thank you.”

Mother went to the apple tree.
The tree gave her an apple.
The apple was for Baby Ray.
Mother said,
“Thank you, good tree.
Thank you for the apple.
Baby Ray will thank you, too.
Thank you, good tree, thank you.”
Then mother went to the house.

Mother said,
“Come, Baby Ray, come.
Come, eat your breakfast.
I have milk for you.
I have an egg for you.
I have an apple for you.
The cow gave you the milk.
The hen gave you the egg.
And the tree gave you the apple.
Come, eat your breakfast, Baby Ray.”

What a good breakfast Baby Ray had!
The milk was good.
The egg was good.
And the apple was good.

“Thank you, mother,” he said.
“Thank you for the good breakfast.”

Baby Ray went to the barn.
He saw the good cow.
He said,
“Thank you, good cow.
Thank you for the milk.
I like milk for breakfast.”

He saw the good hen.
He said,
“Thank you, good hen.
Thank you for the egg.
I like an egg for breakfast.”

He saw the apple tree.
He said,
“Thank you, good tree.
Thank you for the apple.
I like an apple for breakfast.”

This is the cow
That gave the milk
For Baby Ray's breakfast.

This is the hen
That gave the egg
For Baby Ray's breakfast.

This is the tree
That gave the apple
For Baby Ray's breakfast.

BREAKFAST IN THE BARNYARD

Hen: Cluck, cluck! Cluck, cluck!
I want my breakfast.
Who will get my breakfast?
Cluck, cluck! Cluck, cluck!

Chick: Peep, peep! Peep, peep!
I want my breakfast.
Who will get my breakfast?
Peep, peep! Peep, peep!

Cow: Moo, moo! Moo, moo!
I want my breakfast.
Who will get my breakfast?
Moo, moo! Moo, moo!

Sheep: Baa, baa! Baa, baa!
I want my breakfast.
Who will get my breakfast?
Baa, baa! Baa, baa!

Duck: Quack, quack! Quack, quack!
I want my breakfast.
Who will get my breakfast?
Quack, quack! Quack, quack!

Pig: Wee, wee! Wee, wee!
I want my breakfast.
Who will get my breakfast?
Wee, wee! Wee, wee!

A little boy went to the barn.
He fed the cow.
He fed the sheep.
He fed the chick.
He fed the duck.
He fed the pig.

The cow said,
“Moo, moo! Thank you, little boy.”
The sheep said,
“Baa, baa! Thank you, little boy.”
The chick said,
“Peep, peep! Thank you, little boy.”
The duck said,
“Quack, quack! I thank you, too.”
The pig said,
“Wee, wee! I thank you, too.”
Then the little boy went home.

WHAT?

What can a dog say?

A dog can say, "Bow, wow!"

That is what a dog can say.

What can a hen say?

A hen can say, "Cluck, cluck!"

That is what a hen can say.

What can a duck say?

A duck can say, "Quack, quack!"

That is what a duck can say.

What can a cow say?

A cow can say, "Moo, moo!"

That is what a cow can say.

What can a chick say?

A chick can say, "Peep, peep!"

That is what a chick can say.

A WISH

Star light,
Star bright,
First star I see to-night;
I wish I may,
I wish I might,
Have the wish I wish to-night.

1. A star has come out.

What do you wish?

2. I wish for a little kitten.

That is my wish.

1. What is your wish?

3. I wish for a little rabbit.

That is my wish.

1. What is your wish?

4. I wish for a little dog.

That is my wish.

1. What is your wish?

5. I wish for a little chicken.

That is my wish.

1. What is your wish?

6. I wish for a little duck.

That is my wish.

I am a bright little star.

I peep at the rabbits.

The rabbits are asleep.

I peep at the chickens.

The chickens are asleep.

I peep at the kittens.

The kittens are asleep.

I peep at the ducks.

The ducks are asleep.

I peep at the dog.

The dog is asleep.

I peep at the baby.

Baby is asleep.

I peep at you, too.

Do you see me?

THE MOON

I see the moon,
And the moon sees me.
God bless the moon,
And God bless me.

ANOTHER GO-TO-SLEEP STORY

The sun went down.

Mother Hen was in the henhouse.
She called her chickens,

“Cluck, cluck! Cluck, cluck!”

The chickens ran to Mother Hen,

“Peep, peep! Peep, peep!”

Soon they went to sleep.

The old cow was in the barn. 64

She called her calf,

“Moo, moo! Moo, moo!”

The little calf ran to Mother Cow,

“Maa, maa! Maa, maa!”

Soon it went to sleep.

The old sheep was in the fold.

The old sheep called her lamb,

“Baa, baa! Baa, baa!”

The lamb ran to Mother Sheep,

“Baa, baa! Baa, baa!”

It went to sleep, too.

Mother called Baby May.

She put Baby May to bed.

A star came out.

The star saw Baby May.

Baby May saw the star and said,

“Star light,

Star bright,

First star I see to-night;

I wish I may,

I wish I might,

Have the wish I wish to-night.”

The moon came up.

Baby May saw the moon.

The moon saw Baby May.

Baby May said,

“I see the moon,

And the moon sees me.

God bless the moon,

And God bless me.”

Mother sang to Baby May.

The star looked down at Baby May.

The moon looked down at her, too.

Baby May did not see the star.

She did not see the moon.

She was fast asleep.

SLEEPY-HEAD

(To be memorized)

Sleepy-head,
Sleepy-head,
Put your night cap
On your head.

Sleepy-head,
Sleepy-head,
Get your light
And go to bed.

ANOTHER WAKE-UP STORY

The sun came up.

He peeped into the henhouse.

The hens were awake.

The chickens were awake.

He peeped into the fold.

The sheep were awake.

He peeped into the barn.

The cows were awake.

The calf was awake.

He peeped at the birds.
The birds were awake.

He peeped at the rabbits.
The rabbits were awake.

He peeped at the ducks.
The ducks were awake.

He peeped at the dog.
The dog was awake.

Then he peeped into the house.
The old cat was awake.
The little kitten was awake.
Mother was awake..

Father was awake.

But Baby May was asleep.

The sun peeped at her.

But he could not wake her.

A bird came by.

He saw Baby May asleep.

He sang to her.

But Baby May did not wake up.

The bird sang and sang and sang.

He sang,

“Wake up! Wake up!

Wake up, Baby May!

Wake up!”

But Baby May did not wake up.

Then the bird sang again.

He sang again and again.

He sang,

“Wake up! Wake up!

Wake up, you Sleepy-head!

Wake up!”

And Sleepy-head waked up.

RAIN

(To be memorized)

The rain is raining all around,
It falls on field and tree.
It rains on the umbrellas here,
And on the ships at sea.

Rain, rain, rain !
How it rains !

Who has an umbrella ?
“I have,” said the bird.
“I have an umbrella.”

Who has an umbrella ?
“I have,” said the bee.
“I have an umbrella.”

Who has an umbrella?

"I have," said the rabbit.

"I have an umbrella."

Who has an umbrella?

"I have," said the chick.

"I have an umbrella."

"I do not want an umbrella," said the duck.

And he ran out in the rain.

WHAT SHALL I BUY?

I have a penny.
What shall I buy?
I'll buy a rabbit.
That's what I'll buy.

I have a penny.
What shall I buy?
I'll buy a ribbon.
That's what I'll buy.

I have a penny.
What shall I buy?
I'll buy an apple.
That's what I'll buy.

This is the rabbit,
The white, white rabbit,
The white, white rabbit
A penny can buy.

This is the ribbon,
The bright, bright ribbon,
The bright, bright ribbon
A penny can buy.

This is the apple,
The round, round apple,
The round, round apple
A penny can buy.

TO MARKET

To market, to market,
To buy a fat pig.
Home again, home again,
Jiggety-jig.

To market, to market,
To buy a fat hog.
Home again, home again,
Jiggety-jog.

Father has gone to market,
Jiggety-jiggety-jig!

Father has gone to market
To buy a fat pig.

Father has gone to market,
Jiggety-jiggety-jog!

Father has gone to market
To buy a fat hog.

And what will baby have
When father comes home?

Baby will have an apple;
Baby will have a plum;
Baby will have a rabbit,
When father comes home.

BAA, BAA, BLACK SHEEP

(To be memorized)

Baa, baa, black sheep,
Have you any wool?

Yes, sir; yes, sir;
Three bags full.

One for my master,
One for my dame,
And one for the little boy
Who lives in the lane.

A little boy had a sheep.

It was a black sheep.

The little boy said,

“Baa, baa, black sheep,

Have you any wool?”

“Yes, sir; yes, sir;

Three bags full,” said the sheep.

The sheep gave his wool to the little boy.

He gave him three bags full.

One bag was for the little boy.

One bag was for his father.

And one was for his mother.

The little boy said,

“Thank you, good sheep.

Thank you for the wool.”

And he ran home to his mother.

A LITTLE SHEPHERD

Little Boy Blue,
Come blow your horn;
The sheep are in the meadow,
The cows are in the corn.

Where is the little boy
Who looks after the sheep?
He is under the haystack
Fast asleep.

Boy: See, the sheep are in the meadow.

Girl: Yes, and the cows are in the corn.

Boy: Where is the little boy who looks after the sheep?

Girl: We will look for him.

Boy: He is not in the meadow.

Girl: He is not in the corn.

Boy: I can not find him.

Where can he be?

Girl: Oh, I see him! I see him!

Boy: Where?

Girl: Under the haystack.

Can you not see him?

Boy: Yes, and he is fast asleep.

Girl: Will you wake him?

Boy: No, not I, for he will cry.

Girl: I will wake him then.

Little Boy Blue,

Come blow your horn;

The sheep are in the meadow,

The cows are in the corn.

Blow your horn!

Blow, blow, blow!

A LITTLE SHEPHERDESS

Little Bo-peep
Has lost her sheep,
And can't tell where to find them;
Leave them alone,
And they'll come home,
And bring their tails behind them.

Boy Blue: Why do you cry, Bo-peep?

Bo-peep: Oh! I have lost my sheep.
I have lost my sheep,
and I can not find them.

Boy Blue: What! Lost your sheep?
Poor Bo-peep! Poor Bo-peep!
Where can they be?

Bo-peep: I can not tell.

Boy Blue: Look in the barn.

Bo-peep: I looked in the barn.

They are not there.

Boy Blue: Look in the meadow.

Bo-peep: I looked in the meadow.

They are not there.

Boy Blue: Look in the corn.

Bo-peep: I looked in the corn.

They are not there.

Boy Blue: Look in the fold.

Bo-peep: I looked in the fold.

They are not there.

Boy Blue: Leave them alone.

They will come home.

And they will bring their tails behind them.

THANK YOU

Moo, moo, good cow.

Have you any milk for me?

Yes, a pail full.

Baa, baa, black sheep.

Have you any wool for me?

Yes, three bags full.

Cluck, cluck, pretty hen.

Have you any eggs for me?

Yes, a nest full.

One, two, three, four, five.

I have five eggs for you.

Thank you, good cow.

Thank you, black sheep.

Thank you, pretty hen.

Thank you all.

LUCY LOCKET

Lucy Locket lost a pocket;
Kitty Fisher found it.
Not a penny was there in it,
But a ribbon round it.

Bo-peep: Why do you cry, Lucy?

Lucy: Oh! I have lost my pocket.
I have lost my pocket.

Bo-peep: Lost your pocket!
Poor Lucy Locket!
Poor Lucy Locket!
I lost my sheep.
And you lost your pocket.

Boy Blue: What was in the pocket, Lucy?

Lucy: Not a penny, not a penny.
But there was a ribbon round it.

Bo-peep: Here comes Kitty Fisher.
See what she has.

Kitty: See what I found.
Is this your pocket, Lucy?

Lucy: Yes, yes, that is my pocket.
Thank you, Kitty, thank you.
Where did you find it?

Kitty: I found it on the haystack.

Lucy: Yes, I went to the haystack.
I went with Boy Blue.
I lost the pocket there.
Thank you, Kitty Fisher.

Bo-peep: Lucy Locket lost a pocket;
Kitty Fisher found it.
Not a penny was there in it,
But a ribbon round it.

WHERE?

1. Where are you going?

2. I am going to market.

I shall buy a pig.

1. Where are you going?

3. I am going to the haystack.

I shall look for Boy Blue.

1. Where are you going?

4. I am going to the henhouse.

I shall look for eggs.

1. Where are you going?

5. I am going to the meadow.

I shall look for Bo-peep.

Where are you going?

1. I am going home.

LITTLE BETTY BLUE

Little Betty Blue
Lost her pretty shoe.
What can little Betty do?
Buy her another
To match the other,
And then she can walk in two.

Betty Blue had pretty shoes.

She put on her pretty shoes and went to see Bo-peep.

Betty and Bo-peep went to the meadow.

They saw the cows.

They saw the sheep.

They went to the haystack.

They had a good time, but Betty lost one of her shoes.

“Oh, I have lost a shoe!

I have lost a shoe!” she cried.

“What shall I do, Bo-peep?”

“I can not tell,” said Bo-peep.

“We will ask Lucy Locket.

She may tell you what to do.”

And away they ran to Lucy.

"Sad news, sad news!" cried Bo-peep.

"What is it?" asked Lucy Locket.

"Oh! Betty Blue has lost a shoe," said Bo-peep.

"What shall we do?"

"I can not tell," said Lucy.

"We will ask Kitty Fisher.

She found my pocket.

She may tell you what to do."

And away they ran to Kitty.

"Sad news, sad news!" cried Lucy.

"What is it?" asked Kitty.

"Oh! Betty Blue has lost a shoe," said Lucy.

"What shall we do?"

"I can not tell," said Kitty.

"We will ask Boy Blue.

He may tell you what to do."

And away they ran to Boy Blue.

"Sad news, sad news!" cried Kitty.

"What is it?" asked Boy Blue.

"Oh! Betty Blue has lost a shoe," said Kitty.

"What shall we do?"

"Why, buy her another," said Boy Blue.

"Good, good!" cried the others.

"Buy her another

To match the other,

And then she can walk in two."

HUMPTY DUMPTY

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall;
Humpty Dumpty had a great fall.
All the king's horses
 and all the king's men
Can not put Humpty Dumpty
 together again.

"Come, see the king," cried Bo-peep.

"See the king's men.

See the king's horses."

Bo-peep ran to see the king.

Boy Blue ran to see the king.

Lucy Locket ran to see the king.

Kitty Fisher ran to see the king.

Humpty Dumpty wished to see him, but he could not run.

He sat on a wall.

Then he could see the king.

He could see the king's men.

But poor Humpty Dumpty!

He had a great fall.

The king's men ran to him.

They could not put him together again.

Bo-peep saw Humpty Dumpty fall.
She ran to Boy Blue.

"Sad news, sad news!" she cried.

"What is it?" asked Boy Blue.

"Oh, Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall, and he had a great fall."

"Too bad, too bad!" said Boy Blue.

"We must tell Lucy Locket."

And away they ran to tell Lucy.

"Sad news, sad news!" cried Boy Blue.

"What is it?" asked Lucy Locket.

"Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall,
and he had a great fall."

"Too bad, too bad!" said Lucy.

"We must tell Kitty Fisher."

And away they ran to tell Kitty.

“Sad news, sad news!” cried Lucy.

“What is it?” asked Kitty Fisher.

“Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall,
and he had a great fall.”

“Too bad, too bad!” said Kitty.

“We must put him together again.”

“No, we can not,” said Bo-peep.

“All the king’s horses
And all the king’s men
Can not put Humpty Dumpty
together again.”

Poor Humpty Dumpty!

JACK AND JILL

(To be memorized)

Jack and Jill
Went up the hill
To get a pail of water.
Jack fell down
And broke his crown,
And Jill came tumbling after.

Jack and Jill went up the hill.
They went to get a pail of water.
Jack fell down.
Jill fell down, too.
Bo-peep saw them fall.

Away she ran to Boy Blue.
“Sad news, sad news!” she said.
“What is it?” asked Boy Blue.
“Jack and Jill fell down the hill.”
“Too bad, too bad!” said Boy Blue.
“We must tell Lucy Locket.”

Away they ran to tell Lucy.
“Sad news, sad news!” cried Boy Blue.
“What is it?” asked Lucy.
“Jack and Jill fell down the hill.”
“Too bad, too bad!” said Lucy.
“We must tell Kitty Fisher.”

Away they ran to tell Kitty.

"Sad news, sad news!" cried Lucy.

"What is it?" asked Kitty.

"Jack and Jill fell down the hill."

"Too bad, too bad!" said Kitty.

"We must run and see them."

Away they all ran to the hill to see Jack and Jill.

Jack was not there,
and Jill was not there.

The pail was there,
but, oh! what a pail!

"Oh, see that pail!" said Kitty.

"All the king's horses
And all the king's men
Can not put that pail together again."

SOMETHING TO DO

You may be Little Boy Blue.

You may blow your horn.

You may be Bo-peep.

You may look for the sheep.

You may be Jack.

You may get a pail.

You may go up the hill.

You may be Jill.

You may go with Jack.

You may be Kitty Fisher.

You may find a pocket.

You may be Betty Blue.

You may look for a shoe.

SOMETHING TO GUESS

I am a little boy.
I look after the sheep.
I look after the cows.
I blow a horn.
I went to sleep.
Who am I?

I am a little girl.
I look after my sheep.
I lost my sheep one day.
Who am I?

I am a little girl.
I went to the meadow.
I lost my little shoe.
Who am I?

I am a little boy.
I went up the hill.
I went to get a pail of water.
I fell down.
Who am I?

I am a little girl.
I went up the hill, too.
I went to get water.
I fell down, too.
Who am I?

I am a little girl.
I lost a pocket.
Kitty Fisher found it.
Who am I?

SOMETHING TO SAY

1. You can say many rimes.

What rimes will you say?

2. I will say "Little Boy Blue."

3. I will say "Little Bo-peep."

4. I will say "Baa, baa, black sheep."

5. I will say "Lucy Locket."

6. I will say "I see the moon."

7. I will say "Star light, star bright."

8. I will say "Little Betty Blue."

9. I will say "Humpty Dumpty."

10. I will say "To market, to market."

11. I will say "Sleepy-head."

12. I will say "Jack and Jill."

1. Good! You can say many rimes.

Say them for mother to-night.

RED HEN'S NEST

Jack could not find Red Hen's nest.

Father could not find it.

Mother could not find it.

Mary could not find it.

Lucy said, "I can find it.

I will look for it.

I like to look for eggs."

So Lucy went to find the nest.

She looked in the barn.

The nest was not there.

She looked under the house.

The nest was not there.

She looked in the chicken house.

The nest was not there.

She looked and looked.

But she did not find the nest.

Then she said, "I give up.
I can not find that nest."

When Lucy said this,
Red Hen came out of the haystack.

"Ca-ca-ca! Ca-ca-ca!" she cried.

"You had to give up!

You had to give up!"

Lucy went to the haystack, and there was the nest.

Guess how many eggs were in it.

One, two, three, four, five.

Yes, there were five eggs in it.

WHO WILL FEED US?

Hen: Cluck, cluck, cluck!
I am so hungry.
Oh, I am so hungry!
Cluck, cluck, cluck!
Where can Jack be?
He has not fed me.
Cluck, cluck, cluck!
I am so hungry.

Duck : Quack, quack, quack!
I am hungry, too.
Where can Lucy be?
I am Lucy's duck.
Lucy has not fed me.
Quack, quack, quack!
I am hungry, too.

Mother : Where can Jack and Lucy be?
They must feed the hen.
They must feed the duck.
Jack! Jack! Lucy! Lucy!
Where are Jack and Lucy?
I can not find them.
I must feed the hen.
I must feed the duck.
Poor little hen! Poor little duck!
Come to me. I will feed you.

KITTY'S BREAKFAST

Kitty was hungry.
Lucy had not fed her.
Kitty went to look for breakfast.
A bird was in a tree.
Kitty saw the bird.
But the bird saw Kitty coming.
And the bird flew away.

The wind sang in the tree,
 “Woo-oo-oo! woo-oo-oo!
 Nothing here for you-oo!
 Nothing here for you-oo!
 Woo-oo-oo! woo-oo-oo!”

Kitty went to the barn.
There she saw a little mouse.
But the mouse saw Kitty coming.
And the mouse ran away.

The wind sang around the barn,
 “Woo-oo-oo! woo-oo-oo!
 Nothing here for you-oo!
 Nothing here for you-oo!
 Woo-oo-oo! woo-oo-oo!”

Then Kitty went to the house.
She had not found any breakfast.

Jack saw Kitty coming.

“Come, Kitty, come,” he said.

“I have breakfast for you.

Come and get this good milk.

Come, Kitty, come!”

And the wind sang,

“Woo-oo-oo! woo-oo-oo!

Something here for you-oo!

Something here for you-oo!

Woo-oo-oo! woo-oo-oo!”

And Kitty said,

“Mew, mew! mew, mew!

Thank you, thank you.”

THE BIRDS

Father gave Jack a bird house.

Jack put it up in a tree.

"The birds will come soon," he said.

"They will see my bird house.

They will make a nest in it."

One day Jack called Lucy.

"The birds have come," he said.

"They are making a nest.

Come and see them, Lucy."

And Jack and Lucy saw the birds make their nest.

They went to the bird house again.
The father bird was not there.
The mother bird was not there.
Jack and Lucy looked in the nest.
They saw eggs in the nest.
One, two, three, four blue eggs.
Soon the birds came to the nest.
Then Jack and Lucy went away.

They went to the bird house again and again.

They liked to see the birds.
One day the father bird flew away.
Then the mother bird flew away.
Jack and Lucy looked in the nest.
The eggs were not there.
Guess what they saw.
They saw four baby birds.

Soon the father bird came home.
“Peep, peep!” said the little birds.
Father bird fed the little birds.
Then he flew away.

Soon the mother bird came home.
“Peep, peep!” said the little birds.
Mother bird fed the little birds.
Then she, too, flew away.

One day the mother bird said,
"You must fly."
The father bird said,
"Yes, you must fly."
Soon the birds could fly.
One day they flew away.
Jack said, "The birds have gone."
Lucy said, "Yes, they have gone."
Where had they gone?
Can you tell?

THE WIND AND THE APPLE

An apple was on a tree.

It was a pretty, red apple.

The pretty apple was asleep.

A little girl came to the tree.

She looked up and saw the apple.

"I see you, pretty, red apple,"
said the little girl.

"I want you, pretty, red apple.

Wake up, little apple.

Wake up and come down to me."

But the apple did not wake up.

A bird was in the tree.

The bird saw the little girl.

The bird sang to the apple.

"I see you, pretty apple," it sang.

"Wake up and come down.

Wake up and come down to the little girl."

But the apple did not wake up.

The sun came out.

The little girl said,

"You can wake the apple.

Do wake the apple for me."

"I see you, pretty, red apple," said the sun.

"Wake up and come down.

Come down to the little girl."

But the apple did not wake up.

The wind came by.

“Woo-woo-oo!” said the wind.

“I see you, pretty apple.

I see you up in the tree.

Wake up and come down.

Come down to the little girl.

Woo-woo-oo! Woo-woo-oo-oo!”

And the pretty, red apple waked up.

Down it fell to the little girl.

LITTLE RABBIT

Mother Rabbit and Little Rabbit had a nest in the meadow.

One day Mother Rabbit said,
“Little Rabbit, I must go away.

I shall be gone all day.

Be good, Little Rabbit,
and do not leave the nest.”

"Why?" asked Little Rabbit.

"The cat might get you.

The dog might get you.

And then it might rain.

Be good, Little Rabbit,
and do not leave the nest."

Then Mother Rabbit went away.

Little Rabbit was good.

He was good a long time.

Then he said,

"I am not a baby rabbit,
but a big rabbit.

I will leave the nest."

And away from the nest he ran.

He did not see the cat.

He did not see the dog.

How happy he was!

But what was that?

Rain? Yes, it was rain.

Down, down, down it came.

Little Rabbit ran and ran.

He ran to the nest and mother.

How wet he was!

How hungry he was!

Mother fed him and put him to bed.

Soon he was fast asleep.

When his mother went away again,
Little Rabbit did not leave the nest.

THE LITTLE PIG

Pig: Oh, mother, mother!
I have four little feet.
See my four little feet.
What can I do with them?

Mother: Woof, woof!
You cunning little pig.
You can run with them.

Pig: Yes, yes, mother, I can run.
See me run, mother.

Mother: Yes, you can run.
You can run fast.

Pig: Oh, mother, mother!
I have two little eyes.
See my two little eyes.
What can I do with them?

Mother: Woof, woof!
• You cunning little pig.
You can see with them.
You can see me.

Pig: So I can, mother.
I can see you.
I can see the cow and the sheep.
I can see the dog and the cat.

Mother: Yes, you can see.

Pig: Oh, mother, mother!
I have two little ears.
See my two little ears.
What can I do with them?

Mother: Woof, woof!
You cunning little pig.
You can hear with them.

Pig: So I can, mother.
I hear the dog say, "Bow, wow!"
I hear the cat say, "Mew, mew!"
I hear the cow say, "Moo, moo!"

Mother: Yes, you can hear with your ears.

Pig: Oh, mother, mother!
I have a little nose.
See my one little nose.
What can I do with it?

Mother: You can smell with it.

Can you smell your breakfast?

Pig: Wee, wee, wee!

I can't smell my breakfast.

Where is my breakfast?

I am hungry.

Mother: You will get it by and by.

Pig: Oh, mother, mother!

I have a little mouth.

See my one little mouth.

What can I do with it?

Mother: You can eat with it.

You can eat your breakfast.

Pig: Wee, wee, wee!

Where is my breakfast?

I am so hungry!

I want my breakfast.

Girl: Come, little pig.
I have your breakfast.
It is a good breakfast.

Pig: I see my breakfast with my two little eyes.
I smell my breakfast with my one little nose.
I will eat my breakfast with my one little mouth.
Wee, wee, wee!
What a good breakfast!

OLD FOLK TALE.

How many feet did the pig have?
What did he do
with his four little feet?

How many eyes did the pig have?
What did he do
with his two little eyes?

How many ears did the pig have?
What did he do
with his two little ears?

How many noses did the pig have?
What did he do
with his one little nose?

How many mouths did the pig have?
What did he do with his one little mouth?

JACK'S PIG

One day Jack's father said,
"Guess what is in the meadow."
"A little calf?" said Jack.
"No; guess again."
"A little lamb?"
"No; guess again."
"Tell me. I can't guess."
"Mother pig has five little pigs."
"Oh! let me see them, father," cried Jack.

Jack and his father went to the meadow.

There were five little pigs.

“What cunning little pigs!”
said Jack.

“I wish I had one of them, father.
Will you give me one of them?”

“Yes, I will give you one.
But you must feed the pigs for me.”

“I will, father,” said Jack.

“I like to feed the pigs.”

“Do you want a white pig, Jack?”

“No, I want that little black one.

I will call him Blackie,” said Jack.

“You may have that one,”
his father said.

“Thank you, father,” said Jack.

Jack looked after the pigs.
He gave them milk.
He gave them corn and apples.
Soon the pigs were fat.
Fall came.
What fine pigs Jack had!
And Blackie was the finest of all.
Guess what father did.
He let Jack take Blackie to the fair.
And Blackie was the finest pig there.
How happy Jack was!
And father was happy, too.

THE GOATS IN THE RYE FIELD

A little boy had three goats.
One day the goats ran away.
They ran into a rye field.
The little boy wanted to go home.
But the goats would not go home.
The boy sat down and cried.
He cried and cried and cried.

A rabbit came by.

He saw the little boy crying.

“Why do you cry, little boy?”
asked the rabbit.

“I cry because my goats are in the rye field.

I can not make them go home.”

“Do not cry, little boy,” said the rabbit.

“I can make them go home.”

The rabbit ran into the rye field after the goats.

He ran and ran and ran.

But the goats would not go home.

Then the rabbit sat down and cried, too.

He cried and cried and cried.

A fox came by.

He saw the boy and the rabbit.

"Why do you cry, rabbit?"

asked the fox.

"I cry because the boy cries.

The boy cries

because his goats will not go home."

"Do not cry, little boy," said the fox. —

"I can make them go home."

The fox ran into the rye field
after the goats.

He ran and ran and ran.

But the goats would not go home.

Then the fox sat down and cried, too.

He cried and cried and cried.

Then a wolf came by.

“Why do you cry, fox?”
asked the wolf.

“I cry because the rabbit cries.

The rabbit cries
because the boy cries.

The boy cries
because his goats will not go home.”

“Do not cry, little boy,” said the wolf.

“I can make them go home.”

The wolf ran after the goats.

He ran and ran and ran.

But the goats would not go home.

Then the wolf sat down and cried, too.

He cried and cried and cried.

A little bee flew by.

“Why do you cry, wolf?”
asked the bee.

“I cry because the fox cries.

The fox cries because the rabbit cries.

The rabbit cries
because the boy cries.

The boy cries
because his goats will not go home.”
“Do not cry, little boy.
I can make them go home.”
Then the wolf said,
“A bee do what a wolf can not!”
The fox said,
“A bee do what a fox can not!”
The rabbit said,
“A bee do what a rabbit can not!”
The boy said,
“A bee do what a boy can not!”
Then they all laughed and laughed.
The bee said,
“I will show you.”
And it flew at the goats.
“Buzz, buzz, buzz!” it went.

Out came one goat.

Out came another goat, and out came the other goat.

And they ran home as fast as they could.

“Thank you, little bee,” said the boy.

And he went home, too.

A SONG

(To be memorized)

Merry have we met,
And merry have we been;
Merry let us part,
And merry meet again.

With a merry sing-song,
Happy, gay, and free,
With a merry ding-dong
Again we'll happy be.
